

THE GREEN FIRE SAFETY AGENDA

The importance of fire safety in the design and construction of lightweight timber-frame building in a changing built environment.

Carlton Hotel Dublin Airport
19th April 2023 @ 19:00

THE GREEN FIRE SAFETY AGENDA

The importance of fire safety in the design and construction of lightweight timber frame building in a changing built environment.

The Institution of Fire Engineers – Ireland Branch is delighted to present the first in a series of in-person technical sessions at The Carlton Hotel Dublin Airport on 19th April 2023 @ 19:00.

Presenter: Peter De Lacy Staunton, TFM Sustainable Building Design – timber frame industry expert

Will be of interest to: Building Control, Fire Authorities, Fire Consultants, Architects, Developers and Contractors, and Fire-stopping Contractors.

Technical session is free to attend, but registration in advance is essential. Please click on the link.

Tea and coffee at 18:30